

Post-Graduate Fellowship Application for Certification (2023-2024)

The Arthroscopy Association of Canada (AAC) has developed an accreditation process for Canadian fellowships in Sport Medicine/Arthroscopy. The purpose of the database is to standardize basic competencies across different programs and simplify the fellowship search and application process for residents. All training programs are encouraged to apply for registration and accreditation to further the development of post graduate training in Sport Medicine/Arthroscopy in Canada.

Fellowship Program Name *

Host University/Centre *

Application for: *

Is your Program Director an AAC member? *

Program Director *

First Name

Last Name

Email

Administrator Contact Person *

First Name

Last Name

Email

Mailing Address (for invoices) *

Street Address

Apt, Unit, Suite

City

Province

Postal Code

Number of Fellowship Openings for the 2023-2024 academic year *

Duration of Fellowship *

Min. 6 months required

Clinical Case Load in Arthroscopic Surgery *

Enter percentage (%) please

Fellows for 2023-2024 *

Name

Residency Program

Email

Evidence of Team Coverage by 2023-2024 Fellows *

List of Peer-reviewed Publications by 2022-2023 Fellows (previous year) *

Fellows for 2024-2025

Fellows for 2025-2026

Please submit the following documents along with this completed application to aac@canorth.org:

- Curriculum
- Program Description

Submitted on

dd-mmm-yyyy

Submitted by

Full Name